

Weatherization is like a tightknit band

Arkansas Democrat-Gazette/STEPHEN B. THORNTON

University of Arkansas at Monticello jazz-combo members James Alexander (from left), Josh Martin, and Chris Sims perform during a event to celebrate Weatherization Day in Arkansas on Thursday in Little Rock's River Market. The event, sponsored by the Arkansas Economic Development Commission and the Arkansas Energy Office, was held to generate awareness about the Weatherization Assistance Program and to educate Arkansans about the benefits of weatherization.
