WHEREAS, The State of New Mexico has long recognized the plight of low-income families and individuals in meeting their home energy needs; and,

WHEREAS, low income households spend a disproportionate percentage of their annual incomes on home energy bills; and,

WHEREAS, THE United States Department of Energy developed the Weatherization Assistance program in 1976 as the federal government's cost-effective, permanent solution for reducing the heavy energy burden on low-income Americans; and,

WHEREAS, the program conducts computerized energy audits and uses advanced technologies to determine the energy conservation needs of a home, and has provided caulking and sealing of cracks and holes; insulating of attics, walls, and floors; installing of storm windows; repairing and retrofitting of furnaces; detection of leaking gas, and other improvements to more than 14961 New Mexico homes since July 2002; and,

WHEREAS, the Weatherization Assistance Program keeps jobs and dollars in New Mexico by operating through a network of three service providers who employ approximately 135 well-trained staff who serve every community in the state; and

WHEREAS; because of its proven effectiveness and its recognized potential to do more for the common good, the program has gained the growing support of public and private interest.

Now, Therefore, Be it resolved that I, David Coss, Mayor of City of Santa Fe, on this 29th Day of July, 2011 hereby proclaim:
