

Instructor Interview

Name:	Job Title:
How long have you been teaching WX courses?
What's your technical background?
What subject areas do you teach?
What formal credentials do you have related to the subject area you teach?
Ever take any formal train-the-trainer or adult education courses on teaching method, curriculum development, test construction etc?

-
- 1. What went well during your teaching of this course? Such as any successful strategies, techniques, activities, etc.
 - 2. Comment on the particular composition of the class (size of the group, level of ability/preparation, amount of participation, etc.) and how that affected your delivery of instruction.
 - 3. Any particular concerns/issues/unexpected difficulties you encountered? If so, what assistance would have been helpful?
 - 4. How well did your activities, project, and evaluation methods help your students attain the stated learning objectives? What changes might you make in the future?
 - 5. Did the description for your course accurately describe what you delivered in the classroom? If not, what changes do you suggest?
 - 6. Any addition comments about your course, students, program, etc?