WHAT IS CSBG?

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) provides critical funding to Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to operate programs addressing the causes and conditions of poverty under three national goals:

Goal 1 - Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.

Goal 2 - Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.

Goal 3 - People with low incomes are engaged and active in building opportunities in communities.

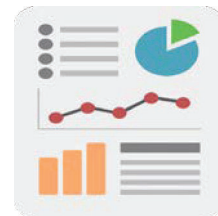

What kinds of RESOURCES do CAAs have?

New York Community Action Agencies are centrally located to serve their communities. For maximum impact, they partnered with:

- 1,748 non-profits
- 839 for-profits
- 521 faith based organizations
- 584 school districts

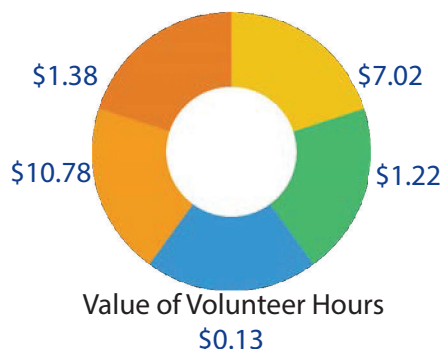

Community Action Agencies utilize a Results Oriented Management and Accountability system that is strategically designed to ensure accountability and improve performance management. In FY18 there were 48 ROMA professionals available in the network to help agencies with planning, reporting, data analysis and evaluation.

There were 989,852 hours of volunteer time donated to CAAs in New York.

Community Action Agencies leverage several other federal, state, local and other private funds.

For every $1 of CSBG, New York's CAAs leveraged $20.53 from federal, state, local and private sources, including the value of volunteer hours.

- $55,170,491 in CSBG funds were allocated in support of CAAs in New York in FY18.
- Including, all leveraged funds New York had $1,180,820,538 available to the CAA network to improve the lives of people with low incomes in FY18.

33 CAAs in New York also operate the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP).

10 CAAs in New York also operate the Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP).

34 CAAs in New York also operate a Head Start Program.

*Value of Volunteer Hours calculated using federal minimum wage, except in those states with a higher minimum wage.
