WHAT IS CSBG?

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) provides critical funding to Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to operate programs addressing the causes and conditions of poverty under three national goals:

Goal 1 - Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.

Goal 2 - Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.

Goal 3 - People with low incomes are engaged and active in building opportunities in communities.

What kinds of RESOURCES do CAAs have?

Texas Community Action Agencies are centrally located to serve their communities.

For maximum impact, they partnered with:

- 1,115 non-profits
- 1,905 for-profits
- 553 faith based organizations
- 375 school districts

Community Action Agencies utilize a Results Oriented Management and Accountability system that is strategically designed to ensure accountability and improve performance management. In FY18 there were 46 ROMA professionals available in the network to help agencies with planning, reporting, data analysis and evaluation.

There were 955,227 hours of volunteer time donated to CAAs in Texas.

Community Action Agencies leverage several other federal, state, local and other private funds.

For every $1 of CSBG, Texas's CAAs leveraged $22.90 from federal, state, local and private sources, including the value of volunteer hours.

- $31,417,295 in CSBG funds were allocated in support of CAAs in Texas in FY18.
- Including all leveraged funds, Texas had $743,966,322 available to the CAA network to improve the lives of people with low incomes in FY18.

32 CAAs in Texas also operate the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP).

19 CAAs in Texas also operate the Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP).

17 CAAs in Texas also operate a Head Start Program.
