

FFY 2019 STATE CSBG FACTSHEET | DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

From District of Columbia's FFY 2019 Community Services Block Grant Annual Report

WHO WE SERVED...

For FFY 2019:

There was 1 CAA, serving 52,430 people with low incomes who were living in 26,547 families.

The CAA served 16,581 people who lacked healthcare, 322 people who reported having a disability, 1,033 senior citizens, 10,525 children living in poverty, and 767 veterans and active military persons.

WHAT IS CSBG?

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) provides critical funding to Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to operate programs addressing the causes and conditions of poverty under three national goals:

- Goal 1 - Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.
- Goal 2 - Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.
- Goal 3 - People with low incomes are engaged and active in building opportunities in communities.

District of Columbia's Community Action Agency is centrally located to serve its community. For maximum impact, it partnered with:

- 113 non-profits
- 401 for-profits
- 34 faith-based organizations
- 1 school district

There were 99,999 hours of volunteer time donated to the CAA in District of Columbia.

What kind of RESOURCES do CAAs have?

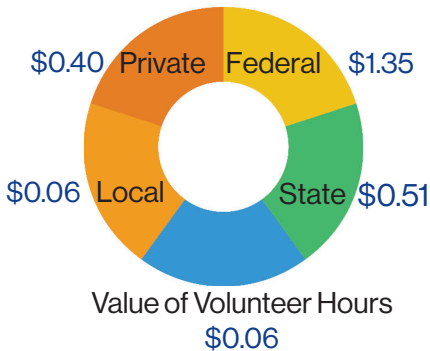

Community Action Agencies utilize a Results Oriented Management and Accountability system that is strategically designed to ensure accountability and improve performance management. In FY19, there were 2 ROMA professionals available in the network to help agencies with planning, reporting, data analysis and evaluation.

Community Action Agencies leverage several other federal, state, local, and other private funds.

For every $1 of CSBG, District of Columbia's CAA leveraged $2.39 from federal, state, local, and private sources, including the value of volunteer hours.

- $11,596,570 in CSBG funds were allocated in support of the CAA in District of Columbia in FY19.
- Including all leveraged funds, District of Columbia had $38,544,589 available to the CAA network to improve the lives of people with low incomes in FY19.

1 CAA in District of Columbia also operates a Head Start Program.
