

FFY 2021 STATE CSBG FACTSHEET | NEW MEXICO

From New Mexico's FFY 2021 Community Services Block Grant Annual Report

WHO WE SERVED...

For FFY 2021:

There were 6 CAAs, serving 35,288 people with low incomes who were living in 18,241 families.

CAAs served 1,390 people who lacked healthcare, 1,846 people who reported having a disability, 6,944 senior citizens, 11,231 children living in poverty, and 1,159 veterans and active military persons.

WHAT IS CSBG?

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) provides critical funding to Community Action Agencies (CAAs) to operate programs addressing the causes and conditions of poverty under three national goals:

- Goal 1 - Individuals and families with low incomes are stable and achieve economic security.
- Goal 2 - Communities where people with low incomes live are healthy and offer economic opportunity.
- Goal 3 - People with low incomes are engaged and active in building opportunities in communities.

New Mexico's Community Action Agencies are centrally located to serve their communities. For maximum impact, they partnered with:

- 491 non-profits
- 233 for-profits
- 172 faith-based organizations
- 56 school districts

There were 241,951 hours of volunteer time donated to CAAs in New Mexico.

What kind of RESOURCES do CAAs have?

Community Action Agencies utilize a Results Oriented Management and Accountability system that is strategically designed to ensure accountability and improve performance management. In FY21, there was 1 ROMA professional available in the network to help agencies with planning, reporting, data analysis and evaluation.

Community Action Agencies leverage several other federal, state, local, and other private funds.

For every $1 of CSBG, New Mexico's CAAs leveraged $10.68 from federal, state, local, and private sources, including the value of volunteer hours.

- $5,488,763 in CSBG funds were allocated in support of CAAs in New Mexico in FY21.
- Including all leveraged funds New Mexico had $54,530,877 available to the CAA network to improve the lives of people with low incomes in FY21.

4 CAAs in New Mexico also operate a Head Start Program.
