CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

WAP Member Planning & Action (Members Only)

WAP Member Planning and Action is devoted to in-depth regional peer exchanges facilitated by your elected NASCSP regional representatives, covering critical topics around WAP operations and administration.

Weatherization Succession Planning: Sustaining Workforce, Leadership and Program Excellence

Today more than ever, succession planning in Weatherization is essential. With an aging workforce, evolving funding requirements, and increasing technical skill demands, programs must be proactive about sustaining leadership and preserving critical operational knowledge. In this session, you'll hear from Weatherization providers and leaders who are building intentional succession plans that include skills inventories, knowledge-transfer strategies, job shadowing, cross-training, and credentialing efforts. We will also explore the Succession Planning for Success checklist, a practical tool designed to support strategic thinking and guide agencies in preparing for long-term continuity. Join us for an honest discussion on what it takes to build resilient teams and ensure the future strength of Weatherization programs.

Presenter(s): Mia Harnos, Director of Energy Partnerships, National Community Action Partnership; Lance Hostutler, Chief Executive Officer, Optimum Performance Solutions

WAP Member Planning & Action (Members Only)

WAP Member Planning and Action is devoted to in-depth regional peer exchanges facilitated by your elected NASCSP regional representatives, covering critical topics around WAP operations and administration. This session is reserved for NASCSP members only.

Beyond the Toolbox: Why Soft Skills Matter in Weatherization

In Weatherization, technical skills may get the job done, but soft skills make the job successful. Through extensive research and conversations with agencies across the country, including North Carolina, West Virginia,

Georgia, and Vermont, one theme came through clearly: the need to strengthen communication, empathy, and overall relational skills among field staff. This session makes the case for elevating soft skill development across the WAP network and explores how states can weave customer service, empathy, and communication training into their workforce strategies. Attendees will learn how investing in relational skills leads to safer, more respectful, and more effective interactions in the field.

Presenter(s): Robert Anderson, Trainer, Joe Keefe, Trainer, Everblue

Thursday, February 5th

8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Legislative Breakfast

Join us for legislative update on the federal landscape impacting CSBG and Weatherization programs.

9:00 a.m. – 10:15 a.m.

Harnessing AI for Better Service Delivery

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is transforming how government agencies operate by enhancing efficiency, improving service delivery, and supporting data-driven decision-making. This session explores how AI tools can be responsibly and effectively integrated into state offices. Attendees will gain insights into real-world use cases, including technical report writing and data analysis. Whether you are a tech-savvy innovator or just beginning to explore AI, this session will offer practical ideas and resources to help you harness AI's potential in your role.

Presenter(s): Kris Schoenow, Executive Director, Bureau of Community Action and Economic Opportunity, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

Programmatic: Beyond Barriers: Three States' Innovative Approaches to Reducing Weatherization Deferrals

Deferrals caused by roofing issues, vermiculite, electrical hazards, and other health and safety concerns continue to limit access to weatherization services across the country. This session brings together Minnesota, Georgia, and North Dakota to share how coordinated strategies, innovative funding approaches, and strong partnerships are reducing these barriers. Through legislative wins, effective resource leveraging, and strong utility collaborations, these states offer practical and replicable models for expanding eligibility, improving workflow efficiency, and increasing successful completions for low-income households. Join us to explore how policy design, cross-sector collaboration, and intentional planning can strengthen your program's approach to reducing deferrals.

Presenter(s): Hanna Hoeger, Equity and Innovation Coordinator, Minnesota Department of Commerce; Alyssa Kroshus, Weatherization Program Manager, North Dakota Department of Commerce; Laura Whitfield, Weatherization Program Manager, Georgia Environmental Finance Authority

Technical: Advancing the Weatherization Workforce – Data, Tools, and Best Practices

This session highlights key findings from recent workforce development projects and initiatives, providing an inside look at current trends, challenges, and opportunities in building a resilient Weatherization Assistance Program workforce. Attendees will learn how to use new tools, including interactive workforce dashboards, updated career flyers, and Green Workforce Connect, to strengthen recruitment, training, and retention strategies. You will also gain insights and best practices from the NASCSP Workforce Development Working Group and IREC, with a focus on addressing workforce shortages and strengthening long-term capacity within the network.

Presenter(s): Kye Garvin, WAP Workforce Senior Program Manager, NASCSP; Pagan Poggione, Vice President, Workforce Strategy and Innovation, Interstate Renewable Energy Council

12:00 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Lunch (on your own)

1:30 p.m. – 2:45 p.m.

CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

Programmatic: Beyond Compliance – Driving Program Success Through Subgrantee-Led Contractor Engagement and Innovation

This session offers practical strategies to help State agencies, grantees, and subgrantees move beyond basic compliance and strengthen contractor performance across the Weatherization Assistance Program. Using real examples, we will walk through effective ways to engage contractors, boost participation, and support consistent, high-quality work. We will highlight contractor training incentive models, the key role of subgrantees in driving improvement, and how to use Green Workforce Connect to equip contractors with business development tools and resources for new WAP providers. Attendees will leave with clear, adaptable approaches for building a more responsive and high-performing contractor network.

Presenter(s): Kye Garvin, WAP Workforce Senior Program Manager, Claudia Torries, WAP IIJA Senior Program Manager, NASCSP

Technical: Building Performance Institute

Stay current with the latest developments from the Building Performance Institute. This essential update session outlines the most recent changes and improvements that impact weatherization professionals. Learn about the newly revised Healthy Housing Principles, explore the new ccASHP Assessor certification, revisit the foundational Building Science Principles, and hear what's new in the Energy Auditor and Quality Inspector exams. The session will also cover important updates to BPI standards, new benefits within the GoldStar contractor program, and additional announcements you will want to know.

Presenter(s): Amanda Hatherly, Chief Executive Officer, Building Performance Institute

2:45 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.

Networking Break

3:15 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

Programmatic: Leveraging Collaboration Models in WAP

Drawing on findings from the NASCSP Annual Funding Report, this session explores how Weatherization Grantees and Subgrantees are successfully leveraging other funding sources to strengthen WAP delivery. By braiding funding streams, programs can bring homes out of deferral, achieve greater health and safety outcomes, and support deeper energy retrofits for low-income families. Participants will explore federal and non-federal funding opportunities that align with and complement WAP. Indiana, Georgia, and Washington will share practical examples of how partnerships and state plan strategies are being used to leverage additional resources, expand health and safety work, and enable deeper retrofits in low-income communities.

Presenter(s): Allen Carbert, Managing Director, Weatherization Unit, Washington State Department of Commerce; Andrea Schroer, WAP Director, NASCSP; Laura Whitfield, Weatherization Program Manager, Georgia Environmental Finance Authority; Chris Wilman, Weatherization Training Team Leader, Indiana Community Action Association

Technical: Strategies for On-the-Job Training Homes

Weatherization often requires balancing day-to-day production demands with the need for consistent, effective training. This session introduces a practical framework for using “Training Homes,” real client homes intentionally structured to support skill development while maintaining production goals. Drawing on interviews with experienced Weatherization trainers, the session will outline strategies for mentoring staff, selecting appropriate training homes, and documenting competency progression. Participants will leave with actionable approaches for integrating hands-on training directly into their existing workflow.

Presenter(s): Ryan Harry, Owner, Heron Energetics, LLC

7:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Awards Gala and Reception

This year marks a special milestone for NASCSP as we host our first-ever Awards Gala and Reception. Each year, NASCSP’s Board of Directors honors extraordinary contributions to the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) and Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP) networks through its Service Awards. We will honor individuals whose leadership, advocacy, innovation, and longstanding commitment have strengthened our network and created meaningful impact at the national, state, and local levels. Join us as we debut this special event and celebrate the people who move our mission forward.

From Priority List to Completion – A Roadmap for Scaling Weatherization in Multi-Family and Rental Housing

Weatherization programs often struggle to balance day-to-day production demands with consistent, high-quality on-the-job training. This session offers practical strategies for weaving training directly into production so staff can build core competencies while meeting program goals. Drawing on insights from experienced Weatherization trainers, we will explore proven approaches to mentoring, structuring training moments, selecting jobs that support skill development, and documenting trainee progress. Participants will leave with clear, actionable strategies they can use right away to strengthen workforce skills within their existing production workflows.

Presenter(s): Jason Foy, Housing and Weatherization Director, Tri-County Community Action Partnership, Inc.; Ryan Harry, Owner, Heron Energetics, LLC; Samantha Pearce, Vice President of Sustainability, New York State Homes and Community Renewal

Updated 1/16/2026

10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. Rooted in Hope: Centering Community Voice to Strengthen Trust and Impact

Community Action has always drawn its strength from deep roots grounded in the lived experiences, resilience, and wisdom of the people we serve. In a moment marked by uncertainty and rapid change, staying rooted in hope requires us to listen more deeply, engage more intentionally, and elevate voices that too often go unheard. Drawing from principles of local journalism and nonprofit engagement, this session invites us to reimagine what it means to truly center community voice. Through intentional listening and authentic storytelling, we will explore how narrative can deepen trust, strengthen engagement, and amplify the impact of our network. Participants will be challenged to think differently about how stories are told and how elevating lived experiences can shape public understanding, influence policy, and strengthen program effectiveness – while honoring the dignity, resilience, and agency of those most impacted by poverty.

Presenter(s): Eric Falquero, Co-Founder, The 51st

12:00 p.m. – 12:45 p.m. Closing Plenary
